Shake It Up!

STATE BAR OF NEVADA
2016 ANNUAL MEETING

WAIKOLOA, HI

JUNE 30 - JULY 2, 2016
As a member of the State Bar of Nevada, you have access to a variety of free or discounted benefits. Our goal is to help you and your law practice thrive and prosper. We partner with providers whose services are not only valuable, but will help improve your bottom line.

Available to all active members of the bar, Fastcase is your key to free and unlimited online legal research. Not only do you save time and money, so does your client. Access Fastcase anytime from your desktop, iPhone or iPad and save money each time you do.

Clio is the #1 cloud-based legal practice management system for solos and small firms. All State Bar of Nevada members receive a 10% lifetime discount on Clio.

LawPay Credit Card Processing enables you to accept credit cards correctly without worrying about commingling your trust and operating accounts. They safely do this for you, at discounted rates, with no annual fees, contracts or minimum processing.

ALPS provides a full range of professional liability coverage and is the preferred legal malpractice provider of the State Bar of Nevada. ALPS was created (and is still owned and operated) by attorneys for attorneys.

ABA Retirement Funds provides retirement solutions exclusively to the legal community with no out-of-pocket costs to firms of all sizes.

Need a job? Need an employee? The Career Center is an excellent resource for job search and recruitment.

The FedEx Advantage Program provides discounted rates for all of your shipping needs.

Discounted auto rentals, whether you’re traveling for business or pleasure. Visit the state bar’s Car Rental Discounts webpage for more information and direct links to the Hertz, Avis and Budget reservations sites.

To find out more about any of these member benefits, visit: nvbar.org

Aloha!

I would like to welcome you all to the 86th State Bar of Nevada Annual Meeting. I have had the honor of serving you all as President for the past year and there is no better location than Hawaii to pass the reins of leadership on to your next President, Bryan Scott.

In the course of my service to the State Bar, I have had immense opportunity to gain a better understanding of the needs of practicing attorneys throughout the state, the challenges facing our organization, and the opportunities on the horizon. The theme for this Annual Meeting, Shake it Up!, reflects the changing times and – I hope – gets us all thinking about what’s ahead.

It’s also apt that we make use of this annual event to network, share experiences, and honor some of the legal giants of our time.

The Hawaiian word Ho'ohanohano means to conduct oneself with distinction – as well as to respect and honor the dignity of others. It is in this spirit that we will honor four long-standing members of the judiciary at this Annual Meeting. Judge Proctor Hug will be presented with the Presidential Award and the Medal of Justice Award will be given posthumously to Judge Michael Fondi (First District Court), Judge Marilyn Hoyt (Seventh District Court) and Justice Cliff Young. As we honor their contributions to the legal community, please join me in welcoming the families of these judges in attendance. And, in the spirit of looking forward, we will also recognize the significant contributions made by an outstanding attorney in practice today by giving this year’s Volunteer of the Year award to Tracy DiFillippo.

Finally, as you take in the exceptional programming and events offered at this Annual Meeting, I encourage you to thank the Annual Meeting Planning Committee and State Bar staff for their efforts to make the Annual Meeting a worthwhile opportunity. In addition, please join me in extending sincere thanks our loyal sponsors and exhibitors whose continued support makes this all possible.

Mahalo,

Larry Digesti

Closing arguments is the trial lawyer’s only opportunity to tell the “whole story” without interruption. During this session, the students will learn tips for formatting, structuring, and delivering a winning closing argument. The instructors will teach the students how to detail the evidentiary support for the theory of their case and how to consistently loop back to the trial theme in order to leave a straightforward and lasting impression with the jury. After this lecture, the students will present their closing arguments in the breakout sessions and will have the opportunity to receive feedback from the instructors.

Resolving Disputes Worldwide
THE BIG ISLAND IS ONE GIGANTIC PLAY GROUND and not being able to do all activities in one vacation is an often-encountered “problem” in Hawaii. Knowing what activities are possible is the key to choosing the activity that is right for you and/or your family. This is where our complete list of activities for the Big Island comes in handy.

SOME OF THE REASONS FOR THE BIG ISLAND’S OUTDOOR FAME INCLUDE:

- The hundreds of miles of coastline for swimmers, snorkelers and surfers
- The Hawaii Volcanoes National Park that offer stunning and ever changing landscapes for the stargazers hikers and bikers
- The Kona (west) side of the island which is known for its world-class golf-courses and whale watching
- The Hilo (east) side that boasts lush rainforest hikes, cascading waterfalls (e.g. the rainbow falls or the akaka falls), hot springs and easily accessible red-hot flowing lava.

BEACHES

The Big Island hosts some GREAT beach destinations across the island. You can find not only world-class white sand beaches, but also black sand beaches and even a green sand beach! For more information, check out our beach guide in the Hawaii sections of this book.

GOLF COURSES

The Big Island is known as the golf capital of the state, and Kona is in the heart of it. Some of the biggest names in course design have carved championship golf courses into the island that will call you back to the green - again and again. Read more about Golfing on the Big Island.

BIKING

If you like to bike, you can rent a bike to explore the island on your own leisure. Biking is a low-key and relaxing (except if you are biking up the volcano) way to explore Hawaii.

FARMERS MARKETS

Farmers markets are one of the little known gems of the Big Island of Hawaii. They are spread over the whole island and with only a little planning you can stop by one for breakfast, lunch or souvenir shopping on your itinerary around the island.

HAWAII VOLCANOES NATIONAL PARK

By far the most popular tourist destination on the Big Island is the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. Here you can hike over recently solidified lava fields, take hikes through rain and fern forests that make you feel like you are in jurassic park, see the lava glow at night from the Jaggar Museum, and much more!

HORSEBACK RIDING

Several ranches around Waimea offer the opportunity to explore their (often very large) range as part of a guided tour of the pastures with spectacular views of the coastline and peaks. It is also possible to make it of the range and explore other spectacular parts of the island, such as Waipio valley.

HOT PONDS

There are several hot springs / hot ponds in the Puna district on the east coast of the Big Island. Most are publicly accessible and especially if you are staying more than 7 days on the Big Island, these make a great addition to your itinerary!

LAVA VIEWING

Both Hilo and Volcano Village are well suited to use as a base when you want to go and see the lava. Hilo is closer to the lava flows in Kalapana, while Volcano village is literally around the corner of the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park.

HELICOPTER TOURS

The Big Island hides many of its awe-inspiring wonders behind obstacles that are impassable and are impossible to see - except through the air! Think about the hidden waterfalls or fresh lava flows, and what about the lava lakes in the Halema’uma’u and Pu’u O’o craters the Kilauea volcano?

HIKING

The Big Island’s volcanic heritage is evident in the many great hikes and hikes accessible to the public. You can hike in the heart of the volcano, through lava tubes, on lava flows or through rainforests.

HAWAII TROPICAL BOTANICAL GARDEN

The Big Island hides many of its awe-inspiring wonders behind obstacles that are impassable and are impossible to see - except through the air! Think about the hidden waterfalls or fresh lava flows, and what about the lava lakes in the Halema’uma’u and Pu’u O’o craters the Kilauea volcano?

GIFT & SPECIALTY SHOPS

From coffee roasters to local artists, the Big Island is home to many unique gift shops. Check out our gift guide in the Hawaii sections of this book.

THE BIG ISLAND’S KOHALA COAST is a magical place. While one end reaches from lush green rainforest land dotted with deep valleys, the other spans into dry and sunny territory lined with white sand beaches. Among all of the natural beauty is an abundance of spectacular restaurants. While many are located at high end resorts like the Hilton Waikoloa Village, others are scattered along the coast out in the small port town of Waikoloa. If you’re craving a high end meal of Pacific Rim cuisine, Roy’s Waikoloa Bar & Grill is the place to go. As a classic Hawaiian staple, Roy’s is known for serving delicious seafood, salads, and desserts all with a Pacific twist. It’s appropriate to dress up a bit here, but over the top isn’t necessary.

KAMUELA PROVISION COMPANY
Specializing in Pacific Rim-influenced cuisine, this restaurant offers tables with sweeping views of the ocean and of dramatic island sunsets. Refined yet unpretentious, the Provision Company prepares dishes using only locally grown produce and fresh-caught seafood. Headliners include a seafood mixed grille with fingerling potatoes and ponzu dipping sauce. Refined yet unpretentious, the Provision Company offers tables with sweeping views of the ocean and of dramatic island sunsets. Refined yet unpretentious, the Provision Company offers tables with sweeping views of the ocean and of dramatic island sunsets.

NORIO’S JAPANESE RESTAURANT & SUSHI BAR
Seduced by the gorgeous Fairmont Orchid resort on the Big Island’s northwest shore, diners at Norio’s are similarly awed by the bounty of fresh seafood at this eponymous restaurant named in honor of master sushi chef Norio Yamamoto. The menu highlights specialty rolls that incorporate soft shell crab, fresh scallops, and fatty tuna, and it revolves in main courses like misoyaki nori-wrapped ahi tempura and ginger-scallion tofu.

CANOE HOUSE
This restaurant’s Pacific Rim-influenced menu boasts a wide range of scrumptuous seafood options. Enjoy fresh-from-the-sea mahi marinated in miso sake, savor lemon-pepper scallops grilled and served with wild mushrooms, or delight in flavorful nips of lemon-pepper scallops grilled and served with wild mushrooms.

MANTA & PAVILION WINE BAR
Any west side morning should start with the breakfast buffet at Manta & Pavilion Wine Bar. This is the place for long, leisurely breakfasts and chit chat over made-to-order waffles and omelets, fresh tropical fruits and juices, healthy whole grain cereals and breakfasts and chit chat over made-to-order waffles and omelets.

BROWN’S BEACH HOUSE
Outdoor seating and terrific ocean side scenery set the stage at this Orchid treasure, whose extensive wine list and traditional Hawaiian cuisine have turned more than a few heads. Dinner patrons are wowed by the menu’s versatility, and choices range from seared crisp moi with basmati rice to a Kobe-style rib-eye with fingerling potatoes and ponzu dipping sauce.
