By requesting certification as an emeritus attorney under the Emeritus Attorney Pro Bono (EAPB) program, you tell the world much about yourself. I thank you personally for giving of your time and talents to this critical program.

Emeritus attorneys assist low-income clients through an approved legal services (EAPB) provider by either providing direct legal representation and advice or by participating in clinics and ask-a-lawyer programs throughout the state.

Complete instructions accompany the two-page application included in this packet. The Emeritus Rule, SCR 49.2, is a limited certification, and is granted directly by the Admissions Department of the State Bar.

This certification is open to all inactive attorneys from any state (including Nevada), as well as active attorneys in all jurisdictions except Nevada. Ineligible for certification are those currently suspended, disbarred, or resigned with charges pending, or with public discipline within the past ten years.

We'll ask you for three items in addition to your application: (1) a current certificate of good standing from one jurisdiction where you are admitted; (2) statements of discipline history for all jurisdictions where you have been admitted; (3) and a one-page declaration from the EAPB Provider you've selected to work with on your pro bono matters.

Submitting everything together with your application will speed processing time. But if you can't, don't worry; we'll simply hold your application until we receive all required items.

Take note you will be required to annually recertify. While certified under this rule, your services are limited to no-fee legal aid services with an approved EAPB provider (such as Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada or Washoe Legal Services). CLE and training requirements, if any, are determined by the EAPB Provider you have selected, and will be based on considerations such as the type of work you will undertake and your individual skills and experience.

If you submit the completed application and all enclosures together (and meet all eligibility requirements), processing should take approximately two weeks.

Please keep a copy of your application and certification (it will also make annual renewal a snap).

Call me with any questions along the way, or to simply say hello. I look forward to greeting you as a certified emeritus attorney in the near future.

And sincerely, THANK YOU.
