

PARTICIPATION SHEET and CONFIDENTIALITY and ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This matter is assigned to the Nevada Supreme Court Eviction Mediation Program for mediation. The program is governed by Rule 16 of the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure. Section (h) of that rule provides for the confidentiality of the process:

Papers or documents prepared by counsel or a settlement judge in furtherance of a settlement conference, excluding the settlement conference status report, shall not be available for public inspection or submitted to or considered by the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals. Matters discussed at the settlement conference and papers or documents prepared under this rule shall not be admissible in evidence in any judicial proceeding and shall not be subject to discovery.

In addition, attorneys are governed by the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct, including Rule 1.6, which provides for the confidentiality of information. Settlement Judges are governed by the Code of Conduct for Supreme Court Settlement Judges, including Standard V, which governs confidentiality. In the event that a conflict arises between the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure governing the settlement program, the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct, and/or the Code of Conduct for Supreme Court Settlement Judges, your attorney and/or Settlement Judge may advise that such conflict exists.

Use of recording devices during mediation proceedings is strictly prohibited.

All participants in this mediation must agree to and sign this confidentiality acknowledgement. Participants also agree that electronic signatures are acceptable as provided for in the Summary Eviction Mediation Rules under Section 7(3)(e). Participants may replace standard signatures electronically by typing “/s/ First name Last name”.

I affirm that I have read and understood the provisions set forth above and agree to abide by all applicable confidentiality provisions and participation requirements as outlined in the original text of this and all other documents related to the Eviction Mediation Program.
