

Question & Answer with Frank Ramos
Friday, July 24 @ 11am PST
Young Lawyers Section, State Bar of Nevada

Mr. Ramos is the Managing Partner at Clark Silvergate, a Miami based business litigation law firm. He will talk about social media as a tool for lawyers, developing business in the age of Coronavirus, and how young associates can succeed in law. Mr. Ramos is extremely active in the legal community, serving on the boards of the Defense Research Institute, Florida International University's Alumni Association, Florida International University's Honors College, Parent to Parent of Miami, Miami-Dade Defense Bar Association, Legal Services of Greater Miami, and Florida Christian School.

Frank Ramos also serves as a mentor to countless young lawyers and law students through his publications, social media posts, presentations, webinars, and his "coffee chats." Frank has written 15 books for lawyers, edited five books for lawyers, and has written over 400 articles for lawyers and business professionals. Mr. Ramos includes in his daily practice pointers and business tips on LinkedIn has almost 35,000 followers.

If you aren't already following Frank Ramos, reading his books, and watching his videos, you should be. Here are some examples:

Want to Create a Social Media Following? Here's How Miami Lawyer Frank Ramos Jr. Did it
Attorney Marketing 101
Conversation with Frank Ramos on the Future of Law after COVID-19