

Our policy is that, as part of our associate and of counsel attorney expectancies, each associate and of counsel must perform at least 100 hours of pro bono/public service work each year. You may share this policy with others.