PUBLIC REPRIMAND

14 TO: David A. Riggi, Esq.
15 c/o Michael J. Warhola, Esq.
16 625 S. Sixth Street
17 Las Vegas, NV 89101

18 Four different and unrelated bankruptcy law clients each filed separate grievances
19 regarding your services. You were able to resolve their concerns and continued
20 representing three of the clients. You gave a complete refund to the fourth. There was 21 no finding of misconduct in regard to the grievances.

22 However, you failed to respond at all to some initial letters of investigation or failed
23 to timely respond to other letters of investigation from the State Bar in regard to each of 24 these four grievances. Further, during this timeframe, you received a Letter of Reprimand
25 for failing to respond to the State Bar, and you were on notice that such conduct was not acceptable.

1           You acknowledged that your conduct in this instance violated Rule of Professional
2 Conduct 8.1(b) (Bar Admission and Disciplinary Matters).

3           Your failure to respond to the State Bar delays the disciplinary process and results
4 in the unnecessary expenditure of limited State Bar resources. Given that the prior
5 Letters of Reprimand failed to curb the conduct at issue, you are hereby PUBLICLY
6 REPRIMANDED.

7           Please be advised that if this behavior reoccurs in the future, the State Bar is likely
8 to seek the imposition of a harsher sanction.

9   Dated this 17 day of March, 2015.
