

RULES AND REGULATIONS
NEVADA BOARD
PERSONAL INJURY SPECIALIZATION

Section I. Mission Statement

The purpose of Personal Injury Specialization is to identify to the public and the Bar those lawyers who have demonstrated superior knowledge, skill, integrity, professionalism and a high degree of competence in the field of Personal Injury so that the public can more closely match its needs with available services, and to permit lawyers to better serve the public by increasing the quality of legal services. An additional purpose is to assure that persons who hold themselves out to be Personal Injury Specialists have liability insurance for the protection of the public.

An Applicant for Personal Injury Specialization shall be deemed to have engaged in legal service if, following admission to the bar of any state or the District of Columbia, the Applicant has: (1) engaged in the private practice of law, and (2) the Applicant is admitted in good standing with the State Bar of Nevada.

Section II. Board of Governors

A. Authority

1. Pursuant to Rule 7.4A of the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct, the State Bar of Nevada Board of Governors has final authority regarding all legal specialization programs and has final authority regarding the Personal Injury Specialization.
2. The State Bar of Nevada Board of Governors has approved these Rules and Regulations for the Personal Injury Specialization and, pursuant to Rule 7.4 (d)(1) of the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct, approved the Nevada Justice Association as the organization to certify attorneys as Personal Injury Specialists pursuant to these Rules and Regulations.
3. The approval of the Nevada Justice Association, as well as the Personal Injury Specialization program, may be re-evaluated by the Board of Governors at any time to determine whether it should be continued, broadened, modified, terminated, or whether some other action should be taken.
4. The Board of Governors may make, amend and publish rules, regulations and standards to define the authority and duties of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.

Section III. Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization

A. Authority

Subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the State Bar of Nevada Board of Governors, the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization is created to operate under the supervision of the Nevada Justice Association. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall have general jurisdiction of all matters pertaining to Personal Injury Specialization.

The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may also be referred to as the “PI Board.”

B. Membership

- 1. Composition. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall be composed of a maximum of five (5) members; four (4) members appointed by the President of the State Bar of Nevada with the approval of its Board of Governors, of which one (1) member shall be a defense lawyer defending Personal Injury cases; and one (1) member appointed by the President of the Nevada Justice Association with the approval of its Board of Governors. All members appointed to the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall be Nevada lawyers residing and practicing in the state of Nevada. After the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization has been operating for three (3) years, then at least three (3) of the five (5) members shall be certified Personal Injury Specialists. Five (5) years after the Board of Personal Injury Specialization has been operating, all five (5) members shall be Personal Injury Specialists. The term of office for the PI Board members shall be as follows: of the four (4) members appointed by the President of the State Bar of Nevada, one (1) such member shall be appointed for a three year term, two (2) such members shall be appointed for two year terms, and one (1) such member shall be appointed for a one year term. After the expiration of the individual terms of the four (4) members, such vacant positions must be appointed as outlined above, and each appointment shall consist of a three year term thereafter. Of the (1) member appointed by the President of the Nevada Justice Association, such member shall be appointed for a three year term, and upon the expiration of such term, such vacant position must be appointed as outlined above; with such appointment consisting of a three year term thereafter. Each member shall hold office for no more than four (4) consecutive terms.
- 2. Officers. The PI Board members shall elect a Chair and Vice Chair from among the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization members, with each to serve one (1) year terms.

3. Ex-officio Members.

a. Non-Voting. All members of the Board of Governors of the State Bar of Nevada and the Board of Governors of the Nevada Justice Association may attend and participate in discussions at any and all meetings of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization. However, no one except a PI Board member shall be entitled to vote or be counted in determining the existence of a quorum.

4. Removal of Members; Attendance at Meetings. Upon good cause shown, the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may recommend to the Board of Governors that an appointed member of the PI Board be removed for good cause. Good cause includes, but is not limited to, a member's unexcused absence from two board meetings in any 12 month period.

C. Powers and Duties

The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall have the authority and duty:

1. To administer the program for the certification of Personal Injury Specialization in the law;
2. To establish, in cooperation with the Nevada Justice Association, reasonable and non-discriminatory standards concerning education, experience, and other relevant matters, for the certification of lawyers as Personal Injury Specialists, which may from time to time be amended or altered with the approval of the Board of Governors of the State Bar of Nevada;
3. To approve or deny Applicants for certification;
4. To provide procedures for the investigation of the qualifications of Applicants;
5. To issue appropriate certificates to certified Personal Injury Specialists;
6. To cooperate with the State Bar of Nevada, as well as the Nevada Justice Association, in establishing and enforcing standards of professional conduct for Personal Injury specialized lawyers;
7. To test and establish grading criteria. The PI Board may consult on the testing and grading with the Nevada Board of Bar Examiners; and

8. To report as required by the Board of Governors of the Nevada Justice Association, and to provide the required Annual Report by March 1 of each year to the Executive Director of the State Bar of Nevada, and all reports required by the Governing Rules for Attorney Specialization established by the Board of Governors of the State Bar of Nevada.

D. Limitations on Power

The power of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall be limited in the following ways:

1. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall not collect or receive funds, as all funds payable related directly or indirectly to the Personal Injury Specialization, including fees paid for the application, are payable directly to the Nevada Justice Association
 - a. The Nevada Justice Association shall pay to the State Bar of Nevada the non-refundable application fee ($2,500) and certification fee ($100.00) required by the Governing Rules for Attorney Specialization established by the Board of Governors of the State Bar of Nevada.
 - b. The Nevada Justice Association shall be responsible for all the costs and expenses of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall be subject to the financial supervision of the Nevada Justice Association.
2. No rule, regulation or standard shall be approved which shall in any way limit the right of a certificate holder to practice in all fields of law. Any lawyer, alone or in association with another lawyer, shall have the right to practice in all fields of law, even though they are a certified Personal Injury Specialist.
3. No lawyer shall be required to obtain a specialty certificate in Personal Injury before they can practice law in such specialty field. Any lawyer, alone or in association with any other lawyer, has the right to practice in the field of Personal Injury law, even though they are not certified as a specialist in the field of Personal Injury law.
4. All requirements for, and all benefits to be derived from, certification as a Personal Injury specialist are individual and may not be fulfilled by, nor attributed to, the law firm of which the specialist may be a member.

- a. A lawyer registered as a specialist under Rule 7.4 of the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct may advertise the certification during such time as the lawyer is certified as a Personal Injury Specialist.
 - b. A law firm in which a certified and registered Personal Injury Specialist is a partner or shareholder may advertise that it has an Attorney Specialist certified in Personal Injury.
 - c. No other attorney in such law firm, other than the certified specialist, may hold themselves out as being a Specialist in Personal Injury.
 - d. Advertising by a lawyer regarding the lawyer's certification as Personal Injury Specialist shall comply with the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct.
5. Participation in the program shall be on a completely voluntary basis.
 6. No rules, regulations or standards shall be adopted in contravention of the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct.

E. Meeting Requirements

Time and Location. Meetings of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may be held at such places in the state of Nevada and at such times as may be fixed by the Chair, Vice Chair, or the presiding member. Notice of the time and place of a meeting shall be given to all members at least 15 days prior thereto.

Quorum. Three (3) members shall constitute a quorum of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization for the transaction of business, and at least a majority of votes in favor is sufficient for adoption of a motion. As to any final action, including rehearing or appeal of any Applicant, a majority, consisting of at least three (3) of five (5) votes in favor of the motion are necessary to carry the motion. If a quorum is not present, the meeting will be adjourned and rescheduled with proper notice being sent to all members.

Section IV. Requirements for Attorney Certification

In order to qualify for certification in Personal Injury, an Applicant must demonstrate that they meet the requirements for specialization prior to the date the application was submitted, and that they meet the following minimum standards:

- A. Applicant shall have been admitted to the active practice of law for a minimum of seven (7) consecutive years.
- B. Applicant must have practiced law within the state of Nevada for a minimum of three (3) years immediately preceding the application.
- C. Applicant must be an active member in good standing with the State Bar of Nevada, not have ever had any trust claim paid nor any recovery fund paid by the Bar and not have had any discipline more severe than a private reprimand.
- D. Applicant shall have been engaged in legal service as defined in Section I as follows:
 - 1. If Applicant resides and practices in Clark County, Washoe County or Carson City, Applicant shall have been engaged in Personal Injury law to the equivalent of 33.3% (being at least 480 hours each year) of a full time practice.
 - 2. If Applicant resides and practices in any place in Nevada other than Clark County, Washoe County, or Carson City, Applicant shall have been engaged in Personal Injury law to the equivalent of at least 25% (being at least 360 hours each year) of a full time practice.
- E. Applicant must make a satisfactory showing of substantial involvement in the Personal Injury field during five (5) years immediately preceding the application. Substantial involvement may be measured by several standards such as the percentage of time devoted to work in the Personal Injury specialty area, the number or type of matters handled within a certain period of time, or any combination of these or other appropriate factors. If any of the Applicant's substantial involvement in Personal Injury law occurred outside the state of Nevada, then such Applicant has the burden to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization that he or she had such substantial involvement in Personal Injury and for five (5) years immediately preceding application.
- F. Applicants must verify that they maintain time records which demonstrate compliance with the required time engaged in Personal Injury law, such records required pursuant to Rule 7.4 of the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct, and that such records shall be available to the State Bar of Nevada and the Board of Continuing Legal Education on request.
- G. Applicant must demonstrate that he or she has at all times a minimum of ($500,000), but is encouraged to have a least ($1,000,000), in professional liability insurance from a Nevada Insurance Division approved and/or authorized insurer. The Applicant shall provide proof of liability coverage by providing the declaration page and policy with his or her application.

- H. Applicant must demonstrate honesty and integrity, professionalism as defined by the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct and a high degree of competence in the practice of the field of Personal Injury law. The required degree of competence is substantially higher than that possessed by a general practitioner who regularly handles Personal Injury cases. For purposes hereof, a “high degree of competence” shall meet the following standards:
1. The Applicant demonstrate a substantially complete knowledge of substantive law and rules of practice, procedure, evidence and ethics pertaining to Personal Injury.
 2. The Applicant demonstrate a high degree of skill, thoroughness, preparation, effectiveness, professionalism, and judgment in Personal Injury law.
 3. The Applicant possess a substantially complete knowledge of, and can demonstrate a high degree of skill in, the use of alternative dispute resolution as it applies to Personal Injury law.
 4. The Applicant satisfactorily complete an examination in the topics specified in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) above.
 5. Legal competence is measured by the extent to which an attorney: (1) is specifically knowledgeable about Personal Injury law, (2) performs the techniques of such Personal Injury and practice with skill, (3) manages such Personal Injury and practice efficiently, (4) identifies issues beyond their competence relevant to the matter undertaken, bringing these to the client’s attention, and (5) properly prepares and carries through on legal matters concerning Personal Injury.
- I. Applicant must pay all application, investigation and testing fees as specified in these Rules and Regulations.
- J. Applicants must agree in writing that they will file no civil action predicated on information communicated to the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization relating to the Applicant’s qualifications for specialization certification including, but not limited to, any legal action that may be instituted or maintained against any evaluator, staff or witness who communicates with the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.
- K. Applicants must agree in writing that if they obtain certification as a Personal Injury specialist that they will bring no civil action predicated on information communicated to the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization relating to such person’s qualifications to maintain his or her specialization certification including but not limited to any legal action that may be instituted or maintained against any evaluator, staff or witness who communicates with the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.

- L. Applicants must submit to the PI Board concerning their competency, qualifications and ethics demonstrating that he or she should be certified as a specialist in Personal Injury. The PI Board may require an in person interview with a member of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization in which the Applicant may be examined and questioned concerning any matters required for certification in Personal Injury. Before an Applicant may be certified, he or she must obtain approval as an appropriate specialist candidate by the PI Board.
- M. Applicants must have handled a minimum of eight (8) contested civil trials, each involving substantial legal or factual issues, in a court of general jurisdiction (district court, federal district court or a court of similar jurisdiction in other states). Of the eight (8) trials, four (4) shall have been jury cases lasting at least two full days consisting of fourteen (14) hours of actual courtroom time, four (4) shall have been conducted by the Applicant as lead counsel, of which only two (2) jury trials and two (2) non-jury trials pursuant to the Nevada Short Trial Rules can be used, and at least four (4) shall have been submitted to the trier of fact on some or all of the issues. If an Applicant is unable to submit eight (8) trials in courts of general jurisdiction, then to be considered as a substitute for trial, the substituted matter must have been an adversarial proceeding and must be binding on the parties. (For purposes of this rule, “binding” means that the parties are required to honor the court’s decision unless and until the decision is overturned pursuant to law). Completion of a Trial Advocacy Program approved by the State Bar of Nevada, either through teaching or attendance, that includes as part of its curriculum, active participation by the Applicant in simulated courtroom proceedings, may also substitute as one (1) jury or non-jury trial. If the Applicant has participated in the Nevada Trial Academy then he or she may substitute as one (1) jury trial or non-jury trial for each time the Applicant completed the Academy, but no more than three (3) jury and non-jury trials.

The Board of Governors may recommend, and the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may establish, additional or higher standards.

Section V. Procedure for Initial Attorney Certification and Attorney Recertification

- A. Applications. Applications shall be submitted on forms provided electronically by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization. The content of the applications shall conform to the standards established for certification of lawyers in the field of Personal Injury and shall be substantial as set forth in Exhibit A. Applications are to be submitted to the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization c/o the Nevada Justice Association and must be accompanied by all applicable fees, specifically the application fee ($200.00) and testing fee ($200.00) payable to the Nevada Justice Association.

For purposes of determining when an application or supplemental information is timely, the application or supplemental information shall be deemed submitted when actually received by Nevada Justice Association.

B. Application Dates. Applications are only accepted twice a year, either on or before the third Monday in February or on or before the third Monday in September.

C. Withdrawal of Applications. If an application is withdrawn, the application and testing fees shall not be refunded.

D. Expiration of Applications. Applications not completed, including examination, within one year of the filing date, unless the application is pending recommendation or decision by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization, will expire. An application can be denied at any time within the one year application period for failure to successfully meet the requirements.

E. Late Applications. If any application is not complete to the satisfaction of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization, an application may be completed after the deadline provided the Applicant pays required late fees of ($100.00) and the application is completed to the satisfaction of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization within twenty (20) days before the testing date. If supplemental materials and information are provided after the deadline, and is not accompanied by the required late fee of ($100.00), the application will not be accepted for that application cycle.

F. Confidentiality

1. Applications. The contents of the application, except for those contents required by the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct and which are required to be provided upon request to the State Bar of Nevada and statements of references, shall be confidential and privileged from disclosure, unless the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization, the Board of Governors of the State Bar of Nevada or the Board of Governors of the Nevada Justice Association determines that disclosure of certain materials is necessary to permit the Applicant to appeal from an adverse decision with respect to his or her application for certification or recertification.
2. Investigations. Investigations, hearings, evidence, findings, and recommendations shall be confidential and privileged from disclosure unless the Board of Legal Specialization, the Board of Governors of the State Bar of Nevada or the Board of Governors of the Nevada Justice Association determines that disclosure of certain materials is necessary to permit the Applicant to appeal from an adverse decision with respect to his or her application for certification or recertification.

3. Scope. The provisions on confidentiality and non-disclosure contained in this section shall also extend to investigations and hearings before the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization or its designees. When confidential information is to be discussed in a session, then that session is closed.
4. Waiver of all Rights to Pursue a Civil Suit. Every Applicant and every person certified as a Personal Injury Specialist must agree in writing that no civil action predicated on information communicated to the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization relating to Applicant's qualifications for specialization certification may be instituted or maintained against the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization, Members of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization, and others involved in the specialization certification including, but not limited to, any evaluator, staff or witness who communicates with the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.

G. Initial Review. Applications shall be examined promptly upon receipt by Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization staff to determine whether the application is complete. The Applicant shall be notified, and if the application is provided before the deadline date, and shall be given either 20 days or the amount of time remaining until the deadline date to supplement any missing information. If the missing information is provided after the deadline, then the application shall be considered late and the Applicant must comply with Section V(E).

H. Review by Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization. A completed application shall be reviewed in order to ascertain eligibility for certification. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may also request a waiver of confidentiality from the Applicant in order to review an investigative charge pending before the State Bar of Nevada. An Applicant may also be required to submit information in addition to that called for on the application form including the following:

1. Specific information indicating the percentage of time devoted by the Applicant to the practice of Personal Injury law that complies with the requirements of Rule 7.4(g) of the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct;
2. The nature, number, and dates of specific matters handled, and the nature of the Applicant's participation;
3. The nature, number of, and examples of documents filed or prepared for use in Personal Injury matters;

4. Specific information concerning a dismissed disciplinary charge, or a charge resulting in any form of disciplinary sanction, if necessary;
5. Information concerning a charge pending before the State Bar of Nevada, if necessary; and
6. Such other non-privileged information relating to Applicant's law practice as the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may require.

In the event the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization determines that the Applicant has not provided sufficient information to make a determination, the Applicant shall be given written notice of the additional or supplemental information required. The notice shall specifically identify the scope and nature of the information required. The notice shall advise the Applicant how many days from the date the notice was mailed to supplement the application. If the supplemental information is not received within the prescribed time, then the application will, at the option of the PI Board, either be not accepted or deferred until the next application period.

I. Investigation Fee. In the event that adverse allegations require further investigation by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization, the Applicant shall be assessed a reasonable investigation fee. In the event the Applicant is relying upon practice outside the state of Nevada for demonstrating practice in Personal Injury law, the Applicant may be assessed a reasonable investigation fee.

J. Peer Review

1. With each application, the Applicant will submit the names of at least five (5) Nevada attorneys, other professionals who practice in the field, and/or judges before whom the Applicant has appeared, familiar with the Applicant's practice, and not including current partners or associates. (Other professionals may only be included in the list of references where approval has been authorized in the Standards for Certification in Personal Injury). The PI Board will select at least five (5) additional Nevada lawyers, judges, or qualified professionals as references from cases/matters/projects submitted by the Applicant. The references will be requested to provide written comments concerning the Applicant, not only on such specific topics as knowledge, skill, thoroughness, preparation, effectiveness and judgment, but also concerning the Applicant's ethics and professionalism. References who provide negative and/or adverse comments concerning an Applicant should be requested to provide the factual basis and any substantiating information for them. Reference names supplied by the Applicant shall not include members of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization. Documentation of all matters and comments considered by the PI Board shall be contained in the Applicant's file.

2. Applicant may be asked to supplement the record with additional names for Peer Review if necessary.
3. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may investigate, research, substantiate, and corroborate any information provided in Peer Review letters which may help them make a determination.
4. If negative and/or adverse information concerning an Applicant is provided by a reference or any other source, the basis and the identity of the source of the information shall be retained in confidence and not be disclosed, an investigation will be conducted to attempt to substantiate or corroborate the accuracy of the information. If the information is corroborated or substantiated, then it may be considered by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization. If the investigation is unable to substantiate or corroborate the adverse information provided by the source requesting confidentiality, then the information may not be considered by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.
5. An applicant, at a time and place set by the PI Board, shall appear in person at a Peer Review where he or she will be inquired about their Personal Injury and legal experience, inquired about the law of Personal Injury and inquired about anything required for certification to be a Personal Injury Specialist.

K. Exam

The exam must be taken by initial Applicants only.

1. Applicant must pay all applicable exam fees.
2. Written examinations will be offered at least twice each year at a date, time, and location determined by the Board of Personal Injury Specialization.
3. If the Applicant does not pass the exam, an intent to deny notice will be mailed. The Applicant may elect to retake the exam and may request to appear before the PI Board to discuss the results of the exam, or may take no action.
 - a. If the Applicant elects to retake the exam, he/she must include the application fee and supplement his/her original application with information regarding his/her continued substantial involvement in Personal Injury and law. The PI Board may elect to conduct an additional peer review. This option is limited to one time only.
 - b. If the Applicant requests to appear before the PI Board, the Applicant will be allowed to review the Applicant's exam questions and answers. Model answers will not be provided.

- c. If the Applicant takes no action, the PI Board will deny the applicant.

If the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization determines at any time to use an outside exam testing service, the appeal process utilized by the outside testing agency will apply.

L. Determination

1. The PI Board and its designee will review the complete record to determine whether the Applicant has established to its satisfaction that the Applicant meets the requirements for certification as stated in this Section V. If the Applicant has successfully met the burden, the PI Board will approve the Applicant as a Personal Injury Legal Specialist. If the Applicant has not successfully met the burden, the PI Board will issue an intent to deny.

M. Intent to Deny

1. Notice. In the event that the PI Board makes a determination and decides to deny the application for certification, it shall notify the Applicant, in writing, of its recommendation. Subject to the confidentiality provisions in section V(F) above, the Notice of Intent to Deny shall set forth the reasons, and the factual basis for, the decision.
2. Request to Appear Before. The Applicant shall have twenty (20) days after the date of receipt of the Notice of Intent to Deny to file with the PI Board a Request to Appear before the PI Board.

A Request to Appear may be filed even if the Applicant does not wish to dispute the recommendation. If the Applicant wishes to dispute the recommendation, the request must set forth the reasons for disputing the recommendation and may contain additional supporting documentation. The Applicant must electronically file the Request to Appear and all supporting documentation with the Personal Injury Specialization Administrator at the offices of the Nevada Justice Association. A Request to Appear is a prerequisite to appearing for oral argument before the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization. Upon receipt of a Request to Appear, the PI Board shall issue a Notice of Appearance as soon as practicable. The Notice of Appearance shall set forth the date and time when the Applicant may appear before the PI Board for a maximum of thirty (30) minutes, subject to enlargement for good cause, at the discretion of the Chair, Vice Chair, or designee.

3. Consent. Failure of the Applicant to file a Request to Appear shall constitute consent to the recommendation.

N. Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization Oral Argument

1. At the time of the appearance hearing, oral argument is permitted. The Applicant shall have a maximum of 30 minutes to make his or her entire presentation to the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.
2. As soon as practicable after oral argument, the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall notify the Applicant in writing of its decision, including the reasons for the decision, to grant, deny or remand the application.
3. The decision of the PI Board is final.
4. There are no appeal rights to the State Bar of Nevada Board of Governors or the Nevada Justice Association Board of Governors.
5. The applicant is not prevented from re-applying.

Section VI. Attorney Re-Certification

Re-Certification is required every five (5) years. The application process as set forth in Section IV applies to re-certification with the exception of Sub-Section I (Exams). An application for re-certification must be submitted prior to the expiration of the current certificate. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may establish additional requirements, but each Applicant for re-certification shall meet the following minimum standards:

- A. Applicant shall make a satisfactory showing of continued substantial involvement in the field of Personal Injury law; that during the five (5) years preceding the application for re-certification; the applicant has been the principal trial attorney in one (1) jury or non-jury trial, or two (2) jury or non-jury trials or three (3) short trials (which may include binding arbitration) where he or she was the principal attorney;
- B. Applicant shall make a satisfactory showing of having completed the annual continuing legal education requirements for Personal Injury during each of the five (5) years preceding the application for re-certification;
- C. Applicant shall pay all required fees; and
- D. Where there has been no break in certification, an Applicant for re-certification or an Applicant in the case of a revocation of Personal Injury certification, shall retain his or her status as a Personal Injury Specialist, until such time as a final determination of denial or revocation is made.

Section VII. Initial Certificate of Personal Injury Specialization and Annual Registration Renewal Requirements

- A. Initial Certification Registration Fee. Once an attorney is approved for certification, that attorney may register, on the form provided, with the State Bar of Nevada and pay the State Bar of Nevada the sum of ($250.00). Certified attorneys must register with the State Bar of Nevada prior to holding themselves out as a specialist.
- B. Annual Proof of Insurance Requirement. Once an attorney is approved for certification, that attorney must Annually file a copy of his or her insurance declaration page demonstrating compliance with professional liability insurance. If evidence of current professional liability is not timely provided when required, the PI Board may revoke a specialized certification for such failure of evidence of the required insurance.
- C. Continuing Legal Education Requirements.
- 1. Annual Continuing Legal Education (CLE)
- a. Each specialist must complete 10 or more hours per year at one or more CLE Activities that meet the standards stated in Section VII (C)(2). This includes a substantive requirement of 10 hours.
- i. Substantive Requirement: The 10 hour substantive requirement refers to CLE Activities in Personal Injury and law.
- ii. Categories of CLE Activities: Within the overall 10 hour CLE requirement, the following minimum and maximums apply:
- 1) At least seven (7) hours must be earned by attendance at interactive CLE. (Interactive means personally attending a CLE program).
- 2) No more than three (3) hours may be earned through a combination of teaching and/or writing CLE. Writing legal material must be in the area of specialization.
- b. Carry Forward Hours: The carry forward and exemption provisions of Supreme Court Rules 210 and 214 do not apply. The annual CLE requirement must be met for each year a specialist is certified, including the first year of certification.

- c. By December 31st of each year, the Personal Injury specialist must submit an affidavit prescribed by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization, such affidavit shall be available to the State Bar of Nevada, the Board of Continuing Legal Education and the Nevada Justice Association on request, demonstrating compliance with the CLE requirements set forth above. The affidavit shall set forth the titles of the seminars attended or taught, articles written, the name of the sponsoring or publishing organization, dates and the location of the seminar or publication. All CLE Activities must meet the standard of Section VII(C)(2).

2. Standards

CLE Activities that are claimed toward the annual requirement shall meet the following standards:

- i. For each 3,000 words of original material written, the author(s) may earn two (2) credit hours. Multiple authors may share credit for material written.
- ii. The first one (1) hour may be basic in nature, but beyond that it must be at an advanced level.
- iii. Credit hours earned through a combination of teaching and/or writing CLE may be reported to satisfy a maximum of three (3) credit hours each year.

4. Delinquent Compliance

If a lawyer is unable to complete the hours of accredited CLE required for the Personal Injury Specialization during the preceding calendar year, the lawyer may apply to the Board of Personal Injury Specialization for an extension of time in which to complete the hours. For good cause, the Board of Personal Injury Specialization may extend the time not more than six (6) months. If the lawyer is granted the extension by the Board of Personal Injury Specialization, he/she must provide evidence of such extension to the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.

Failure to obtain the required 10 hours of continuing legal education credit by the December 31st deadline will result in the following late fees:

- a. If an extension has been provided by the Board of Personal Injury Specialization, then if CLE requirements are completed between January 1 and July 1, a delinquent compliance fee of ($25) is assessed by the PI Board and shall be payable to the Nevada Justice Association for the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.

Failure to file the Affidavit of Compliance when due under section VII(C)(1) thereof will result in the following late fees:

5. Late Filing Fees

- a. Members who file their affidavits between January 1 and February 28 will be assessed a delinquent filing fee of ($100), payable to the Nevada Justice Association for the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.

- b. Members who file their affidavits between March 1 and June 30 will be assessed a delinquent filing fee of ($125), payable to the Nevada Justice Association for the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.
- c. Members who file their affidavits after June 30 will be assessed delinquent filing fee of ($250), payable to the Nevada Justice Association for the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.

Such fees shall be in addition to any fee for delinquent compliance as set forth above. Failure to file the affidavit of compliance by December 31st can result in revocation of certification.

6. Failure to Comply

- a. Any affidavit filed pursuant to Section VII(C)(2) that is, or appears to be, not in compliance shall be referred to the attention of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization for a determination of compliance.
- b. Revocation. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization may revoke a specialist's certification for failure to satisfy the annual CLE requirements.

Section VIII. Revocation of Certification

- A. Procedure. The certification of any lawyer may be revoked by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization if it is determined that: (1) the certificate was granted contrary to the rules and regulations of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization; (2) the certificate was granted to a lawyer who was not eligible to acquire a certificate or who made any false representation or misstatement of material fact to the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization; (3) the certificate holder has failed to abide by all rules and regulations covering the program promulgated by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization, as amended from time to time, including any continuing legal education requirements necessary to maintain certified status; (4) the certificate holder has failed to pay any required fee related to Personal Injury Legal Specialization; (5) the certificate holder no longer meets the qualifications established by the State Bar of Nevada and/or the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization; or (6) the certificate holder has been disciplined, disbarred or suspended by the Nevada Supreme Court or any other state or federal court or agency. The certificate holder has a duty to inform the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization promptly of any act or circumstance described above.

- B. Notice. The Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization shall give the certificate holder whose certificate is subject to revocation notice of its intent to revoke the holder's certificate and the reason therefore, at least ten (10) days prior to revocation. Such notification shall be sent by regular mail, addressed to the Applicant at the address last furnished by the Applicant to the State Bar of Nevada.
- C. Hearing. A hearing on the revocation of certification status, if requested, shall be held within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the notice of intent to revoke issued by the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization. The applicant shall have only thirty (30) minutes to present his or her case on why the certification should not be revoked. The PI Board's determination is final and not appealable.

Section IX. Governing Rules

- A. The Governing Rules for attorney specialization adopted and from time to time amended by the State Bar of Nevada Board of Governors supersedes and governs these rules and regulations of the Board of Personal Injury Legal Specialization.
