

First Independent Bank Presents
A Pro Bono Celebration CLE Event

“Ethics and Practice Tips in Trial and Appellate Practice”

Presenters

Justice Michael L. Douglas

Justice James W. Hardesty

Moderator

to be announced

Thursday, October 23rd

4:00 pm to 6:00 pm

Check-in starts at 3:00 pm

Networking Reception 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm

The Theater
at The Nevada Museum of Art

160 W. Liberty Street, Reno

one

one client. one attorney. one promise.

Proceeds to benefit

Nevada Legal Services

Volunteer Attorneys for Rural Nevadans (VARN)

Washoe Legal Services

If you are a Nevada lawyer, don't miss this unique opportunity for an engaging educational and informative seminar and networking event at the Nevada Museum of Art.

This CLE will give you 1.5 of your ethics credit for the year plus a 0.5 hour of substance abuses, addiction and mental health credit for a total of 2.0 CLE credits AND count towards your Rule 6.1 pro bono contributions.

Presenters Justice Michael Douglas and Justice James Hardesty will instruct on a variety of ethical issues regarding trial and appellate practice.

The CLE will be immediately followed by a networking reception at the Museum.

Space is limited

Early bird: $150.00

After 10/16: $200.00

Registration fee counts toward RPC 6.1 Pro Bono contribution

2 Hours CLE - includes 1.5 hours of ethics and 0.5 hours of substance abuse, addiction and mental health

To register visit: www.nvbar.org/cle/liveseminars

CLE Sponsored by

The State Bar of Nevada

Sponsored by

A division of Western Alliance Bank. Member FDIC.